ROBLIN'S INTRIGUES

REVEALED IN OTTAWA.

Manitoba Government story turns out a boomerang with a vigorous rebound.

Bulletin Special.

Ottawa, April 6.—Business has been held up all day by an attempt of the leader of the Opposition to hold the Government responsible for the communications between the Papal Delegate and the Manitoba Government. It was shown during the discussion that the Manitoba Government had been intriguing for the Roman Catholic support in exchange for school privileges for the past year; that the question of the extension of provincial boundaries had only attracted their attention in January last after the meeting of Parliament; that Rogers, who gave out the statement of the interview with the Papal Delegate had never seen him or been seen by him, so that there was no evidence whatever. The object of the Opposition in returning to the attack was first to delay business, and secondly, by mere prolonged clamor, as in the case of the G. T. P., to get the country to believe that something was wrong.

Wounded Policeman Shot.

Bulletin Special.

Warsaw, April 5.—While everyone was asleep last night in the hospital in which are the three policemen who were injured by the explosion of a bomb which was thrown right into the police station at Praga, a suburb of Warsaw, on Sunday March 26, an unknown man entered the ward and went to the bedside of Policeman Sarap and immediately fired. One shot took effect in the back of the policeman. The assailant escaped where the patients and attendants had time to interfere. Sarap was especially hated on account of his brutality in the recent riots. A strong body of police, aided by two companies of infantry Monday night made a thorough search of Wola, a suburb to this city, chiefly inhabited by criminals, revolutionaries and suspected persons. The police seized quantities of revolutionary pamphlets and manifestos, and revolvers, and cartridges; and arrested sixty-three persons. The University of Warsaw was officially closed today.

Sudden Death of Regina Lady.

Bulletin Special.

Regina, April 7.—A painfully sudden death occurred this morning of Mrs. Wilmet Haultain, wife of a nephew of Premier Haultain and deputy registrar in the Dominion lands office. The deceased lady appeared to be in perfect health yesterday when she was taken suddenly ill and died this afternoon. She was a Miss Bennett of Peterboro, Ont., and was married to Haultain last August when he was transferred from the Yukon to Regina.

JAPANESE ADVANCE

IN CRESCENT FORMATION.

Oyama's Forces again move against the enemy and another Russian retreat is probable.

Bulletin Special.

London, April 7.—The Japanese are advancing in crescent formation. On the left, Nodzu in the centre and Kuroki and Kamamura on the right, with a total strength of 475,000. Linewitch will be compelled to withdraw.

Feeling Inflamed in Winnipeg

Bulletin Special.

Winnipeg, April 7.—Public feeling is working up here to an extraordinary pitch and this morning, Hon. Rogers and Campbell, Manitoba delegates to Ottawa on the provincial boundaries, issued an official statement with documents practically denying the assertions of Premier Laurier and Mgr. Sheeratti concerning the now famous consultations with the Papal Delegate. As an indication of the sentiment in certain quarters, L. G. L. 1307 met last night and, after an inflammatory speech by the mover, in which he appealed to all the possible sentiments entertained by ardent Orangemen, Secretary Edgewood moved that Premier Roblin have the house and then go to the country on the boundaries and school questions, and that if the Lieutenant-Governor refused, then to call a special session of the legal assembly to summarily deal with the matter. This is the sort of talk that is going on in Winnipeg now. Grace Church young men also moved in the matter.

Bulletin Special.

Winnipeg, April 7th.—Local labor men in the trades council met and decided to build a labor temple costing $50,000. They are applying for incorporation.

Kingsion, April 7th.—Earl Grey was given an enthusiastic welcome at the limestone city.

THE COUNTRY CLUB SCHEME.

The proposal to found a country club with large athletic grounds in connection on the Carey estate north west of the city has met with considerable favorable comment. The various athletic organizations now reorganizing for the city find themselves without grounds save those of the exhibition association and it has been found a hard matter in the past to attract a crowd there for a single game, owing to the distance and the climb up the hill. The proposed grounds would be as far from the city, but on the level and are along the line of the proposed street railway line to St. Albert. While the new plan would not therefore relieve matters for the present season, it would, it is thought, provide permanent grounds for polo, golf, football, baseball, cricket, lacrosse and other athletics not too far distant and easily accessible.

EDMONTON'S MEMBER.

The Ottawa Free Press reproduces a photograph of Edmonton's member of the Federal Parliament with the following complimentary article. It is not necessary to add that these paragraphs would not appear in these columns were Mr. Oliver at home.

"Mr. Frank Oliver, editor of the Edmonton Bulletin, M.P. for Edmonton, like Mr. Walter Scott, M. P. for Regina, is a journalist. He was born in Peel country, Ontario, in 1853. Early in life he decided to become a printer, and his first work was in the composing room of the Toronto Globe. He was thus brought into close contact with Mr. George Brown, and his broad liberalism is no doubt due in no small measure to that great editor's influence.

Canada had then just been confederated. The vast West was being opened up. Gigantic railway projects were on foot to unite the Atlantic to the Pacific and he determined to make the West his home. He went to Winnipeg in 1873 and resided there for three years. At this time it was expected that the C.P.R. would cross the Rockies by way of the Jasper Pass and would thus traverse the Edmonton district. Battleford was to be the capital and the railway centre of the Middle West. But Mr. Oliver had greater faith in Edmonton and in 1876, purchasing a freighting outfit, he set out for that region. Edmonton at that time was a mere village controlled by the Hudson's Bay Company. It consisted of their fort with the usual stores and workshops and the scattered houses of a few settlers. In the following winter Mr. Oliver "hoofed it back" to Winnipeg by dog train. On this first trip to Edmonton his glimpse of the land of promise filled him with a hope for that region, which is only now finding fulfillment.

"The fertility of the soil and the projected transcontinental railway augured well for the future of Edmonton, and, desiring 'to be on the ground floor,' he continued his trading operations, making his trips to Winnipeg in summer and disposing of his goods during the winter months. In this connection it is worthy of note that Mr. Oliver erected the first building for business purposes on the present site of Edmonton, outside of the Hudson's Bay company's fort. His trading operations continued from 1876 to 1884.

"In those early days a mail reached Edmonton only once in three weeks. In the fall of 1879 the Government telegraphic line was extended to Edmonton and the people were brought in daily touch with the outside world. Arrangements were made to send a news bulletin over the wire. Being a printer, and having to journey to Winnipeg each year, Mr. Oliver saw a golden opportunity. He decided to establish a newspaper so that the news bulletin might be given in printed form. Mr. Alex. Taylor, the telegraph operator, now clerk of the court and postmaster at Edmonton, was associated with him in his enterprise.

"The founding of the Edmonton Bulletin is a romance of newspaperdom, and early copies are now rare and valuable.

"Mr. Oliver brought with him from Winnipeg a supply of paper—the sheets a little larger than a sheet of notepaper—a toy press and a pair of cases of nonpareil type; but he forgot to bring type for a heading, and Mr. Taylor carved with a jack-knife, from a piece of dry birch, the words 'The Bulletin,' and so the paper was launched under this name, which was afterwards changed when the proper type was secured to 'The Edmonton Bulletin.'

"This diminutive paper at first having but two columns to the page, on account of Mr. Oliver's business engagements was published but for six months in the year. The subscription was $2 and the proprietor takes delight in telling that his was the best paid up subscription list in Canada. 'The Edmonton Bulletin' is the 'Bulletin' to have been the first 'news' paper in the country.

"The Edmonton Bulletin is now in the hands of the people."

count of the projected C. P. R. the people of the West expected Winnipeg would be another Chicago and Edmonton a St. Paul. There was a wild rush across the plains and a boom was on. The paper was enlarged to three columns to the page to meet the desire of the increased population for news. On the strength of this boom Alex. Dunlop, Mr. Oliver's brother-in-law (Mr. Oliver married Miss Harriet Dunlop of Prairie Grove, Man., in 1881), became a partner in the "Bulletin." In the summer of 1883 a Gordon press, with a better printing outfit, was purchased and a paper with four columns to the page was published.

"Suddenly it was decided to change the route of the C.P.R. to the Kicking Horse Pass. The boom collapsed and the country was in a state of financial panic. Mr. Dunlop severed his connection with the "Bulletin," but Mr. Oliver was not without hope. He gave up his trading business and devoted all his energies to his paper.

"In 1883 Mr. Oliver was elected to the council of the North West Territories and has the honor of being the first member elected to that council. In 1885 he was defeated by Dr. Wilson, of Edmonton. He sat continuously from 1888 to 1896 in the Legislative Assembly, which succeeded the council with wider powers. In 1896 he stood as an independent Liberal for Edmonton for the Commons and defeated his Conservative opponent, Mr. Thomas Cochrane. He was re-elected in 1900 and 1904.

"No man has done more for the West than Frank Oliver. In 1883 he drafted a complete school law for the Territories. His bill was not passed, but was embodied, with little change, in the bill introduced by Judge Rouleau in 1884 and was, consequently, the basis of the law at present in force.

"He likewise drew up the original of the election law. This law was adopted to the peculiar circumstances of the West and is in many ways the best election law in Canada. It practically does away with the possibility of perjury on the part of voters and minimizes the errors that arise through ignorance in marking ballots.

"It is a fitting thing that when the new provinces are being formed Mr. Oliver, who established the first newspaper in Edmonton built its first private business establishment, gave the Territories their school law and election law, should represent in the Commons the most important community between Winnipeg and the Rockies.

"In 1896 his newspaper business, on account of his enforced absence from Edmonton, was formed into a joint stock company.

"He however continued to guide its destinies and shape its policy, even while in Ottawa and his terse summing up of the political situation has added greatly to its influence. From the beginning of the "Bulletin's" existence the crisp, pointed paragraphs, dealing with the events of world interest and of local importance, made it one of the best journals in Canada.

"Mr. Oliver is one of the ablest members of the present Parliament. His rugged common-sense, his restless energy, his straight-forwardness have won for him the confidence of the Government and the respect of the Opposition.

A GOOD WORD FOR EDMONTON.

From the Montreal Star:—Business and development in Edmonton promises to open out satisfactorily this season. The progress that has been registered for the past two seasons will be repeated and improved upon.

A conservative estimate of last year's building operations places the total at $500,000, and if the transactions in real estate are any indication of coming building operations, work will be large and vigorous. The past two months has seen the turning over of $24,000 worth of real estate and with spring scarcely opened. The National Trust Company has invested $20,000 in a single business corner lot, for which was paid $400 per foot. The Merchants' Bank has bought at a slightly lower price.

The Canadian Northern people have their grading completed to within seventy miles of Edmonton, except for occasional gaps, and this remaining section will be rushed with all possible speed as soon as the earth can be worked. This grading outfit is on the ground and supplies of all sorts are in readiness. The line will pass to the north of Beaver lake and will run through Fort Saskatchewan, and the Port is already getting busy with town lots. The contract for the bridge at Edmonton has been let. The chief activity in farm lands has been in the Vegreville district, and values are rising for land along the line in this district.

THE HOG QUESTION AGAIN

Editor Bulletin.

Dear Sir:

In your issue of March 31st, I notice an article on "The Hog Question" by Mr. T. Daly. In it he refers to the lecture recently delivered in Robertson Hall by Mr. McKee, in which that gentleman kindly instructed the farmers as to what kind of hogs to raise, and Mr. Daly is continuing that lecture. The general tenor of the letter is given in the clause: "When we have the right class of hogs we can get the right price for such hogs, and such hogs are wanted." Thus inferring, if not distinctly stating that we have not the right class of hogs.

Also he says, "Any farmer with a reasonable amount of common sense knows that if we are known to raise hogs of the right quality in North Alberta, we will not want for buyers and it will be an encouragement to men with capital to put a bacon curing establishment of the right sort in North Alberta, and make a steady market."

And so, according to Mr. Daly, the farmer is himself to blame for the poor market or no market. Further he advises the farmers as to the particular breeds to raise.

Neither I, nor any other farmer, will disagree for a moment with Mr. Daly as to the wisdom of careful and intelligent breeding and feeding of hogs, but I do wish to say that any farmer with a reasonable amount of common sense knows that we raise hogs of the right quality to supply the market that has been supplied by foreign bacon. Take, for instance, the northern trade supplied during this last winter by Chicago pork, shipped here by the carload. Does any man of common sense pretend to say that our hogs are not the right kind to supply that trade? I have not heard such a thing hinted at except by Mr. Daly. Buyers have told me that the hogs are all right here, that our hogs are not the right kind of packing specimens. And I think no man with a reasonable amount of common sense doubts it. When delivering hogs this winter, I asked the buyer, "How do these suit you?" and he replied "They are just right," and my hogs were no better than lots of other farmers', and very possibly I would be quite safe in saying the great majority of the farmers of this district. The very words advocated by Mr. Daly have been important from time to time. Consequently a very large proportion of the hogs in the country are of this type.

Now what are the facts? The North Albertan hog, generally is good, reasonably averages as good as his supposedly superior Danish cousin. But in spite of this and Mr. Daly's opinion, the buyers are not willing to pay a profitable price for him. Recently I read in a farm paper a passage something like this: "A hog at six or seven cents per pound is a gentleman, but at half that price he is a low, miserable brute." Farmers in this neighborhood are beginning to regard him in the latter light, so much that many are ceasing to raise him. This is to be regretted, but although farmers do a great deal of work for nothing or next to it, it is not remarkable that they refuse to continue working for nothing.

One thing is certain, unless something is done, the hog industry (one of the most, if not the most, important industry in this district) is doomed. Cannot the city of Edmonton provide or induce someone else to provide the needed skill and capital to prevent this, and so supplement the efforts of the farmer to better himself and enrich the country? Much more might be said with reference to our industry, but as I have already taken up a good deal of your valuable space, I will drop the subject for the present.

In conclusion, I beg to say that I have not written this letter from any feeling of disrespect to Mr. Daly, but simply to try to correct the erroneous and misleading impression that his letter gives.

I am, sir, Yours truly,

YET ANOTHER FARMER.

Over 100,000 of these machines have been sold in the U.S. within the last few years at the same price which is being charged for any other standard typewriter. This proves conclusively that the OLIVER is the very best machine made regardless of price.

As there is now in Montreal a factory devoted exclusively to the manufacture of this machine, it can be bought in Canada for the same price at which it is sold in the U.S. without adding from $25 to $30 to cover duty and charges, as do all the other standard writers.

This should be a very attractive proposition to any purchaser of writing machines.

WHAT COSTS MOST

WHOLE lot of people fancy the cigar business is a snap! They figure out that all you need is some cases of tobacco, a few cigar makers, and the name of some stage favorite or prominent man.

The quality of the filler does not interest them at all—the binder is beneath their notice—but the wrapper and the name is all important.

They can sell this kind of cigar at $55.00 a thousand, give a gold watch into the bargain, and then make a good size profit.

The principal cost of Pharaohs is in tobacco—I buy the best filler in the world—a Cuban leaf—one I select myself from the best of the Manicure district, in the Province of Santa Clara—a Connecticut broad leaf as binder, the most expensive in the world—and I import a clear leaf Sumatra from Holland as wrapper.

I secure by this means a superb cigar, a fragrant, even smoker—very palatable—very superior to the ordinary run of cigars.

Canal Work to recommence

Raymond Chronicle:—Work on the enlarging of the main irrigation canal at the Rolling Hill near the flume is to be commenced this week, the contract having been signed by H. S. Allen to Cazier Bros. A large share of the work was done last fall under the charge of Mr. Allen, there remaining now to be moved only about 25,000 yards, which will take about three weeks with the force of men that Cazier Bros. will employ, expected to be about forty. The contractors expect to have their camp moved up here about next Thursday from Milk River, where their stock has been wintered, and it will be located for the greater part of the summer in the neighborhood of Raymond.

J. Heusinger has started a pan-criticism over Douglas' book store. In an address in Calgary Dr. Herdman, Superintendent of the Presbyterian missions said that one Edmonton donor is supporting a mission and the Sunday School of Edmonton is supporting a mission in the Barr Colony.

IS BATTLEFORD TO MOVE.

From the Herald:—Now is the time when the people of Battleford have to decide whether they are going to stand by the town or whether they will abandon their old homes and property and the improvements of a life time and move to the new townsite to assist in improving the property of a company of speculators. It is hard for the newcomers to realize the feelings of those who have seen Battleford grow from a vacant spot on the prairie to a town of importance. They expect us to put a commercial value on our memories of the past, and allow our town to be blotted from the map. Our town that was in existence before Brandon, Regina, Calgary or Prince Albert was heard of. Our town that did its share in protecting the lives of the settlers at the time of the rebellion. Our town that sent more men to South Africa to fight for our Queen than any town of its size. Who are we who have lived here over a few years have not a loved one or friend laid to rest on our bank of the Saskatchewan, which a C.N.R. engineer says is to become a sheep pasture. But leaving sentiment aside, what is to be gained by moving? Here we have our four churches, each one free of debt. Will the townsites company place you in the same position over there? Here you have two public school buildings in which the debtless payments are made this year. The new townsites representatives can offer you nothing but a spot on the prairie and you must mortgage yourselves for a lifetime to secure an education for your children. On this side of the river you have cultivated gardens and your plantations of trees and bushes. Can the townsites company place you in the same position? Can they do in a week of ten or twenty years in a single season? You have two rivers and a number of wells for a water supply. Where is the water to be obtained? The new townsite is a distance from the river and no one knows yet whether water can be obtained at a reasonable depth or not. Want of space compels us to close, but do not neglect to attend the meeting tomorrow (Thursday) night and hear the offer to be made by the townsites representative and judge for yourselves. So far we have not heard of one of the storekeepers who is going over the river.

Synopsis of Regulations for Disposal of Minerals on Dominion Lands in Manitoba, the Northwest Territories and the Yukon Territory

Coal.—Coal lands may be purchased at $10 per acre for soft coal and $20 for anthracite. Not more than 320 acres can be acquired by one individual or company. Royalty at the rate of 10 cents per ton of 2000 pounds shall be collected on the gross output.

Quartz.—Persons of eighteen years and over and joint stock companies holding free miner's certificates may obtain entry for mining location.

A free miner's certificate is granted for one or more years, not exceeding five, upon payment in advance of $7.50 per annum for an individual and from $50 to $100 per annum for a company, according to capital.

A free miner having discovered mineral in place, may locate a claim 1,500 by 1,500 feet by marking out the same with two legal posts bearing location notices, one at each end of the line of the lode or vein.

The claim may be recorded, within fifteen days if located within ten miles of a mining recorder's office, one additional day allowed for every additional ten miles or fraction. The fee for recording a claim is $5.00.

At least $100 must be expended on the claim each year or paid to the mining recorder in lieu thereof, when $500 has been expended, or paid the locator may, upon having a survey made, and upon complying with other requirements, purchase the land at $1.00 per acre.

Permission may be granted by the Minister of the Interior to locate claims containing iron and mica, also copper in the Yukon Territory, of an area not exceeding 160 acres.

The patent for a mining location shall provide for the payment of royalty on the sales not exceeding five per cent.

Placer mining. Manitoba and the N. W. T. excepting the Yukon Territory.—Placer mining claims are generally 100 feet square, entry fee $5.00, renewable yearly. On the North Saskatchewan river claims for either bar or bench, the former being 100 feet long and extending between high and low water mark, the latter includes bar diggings but extends back to the base of the hill or bank, but not exceeding 1,000 feet. Where stream power is used, claims 200 feet wide may be obtained.

Dredging in the rivers of Manitoba and the N. W. T. excepting the Yukon Territory.—A free miner may obtain only two leases of five miles each for a term of twenty years, renewable in the discretion of the Minister of the Interior.

The lessee's right is confined to the submerged bed or bars of the river below low water mark and subject to the rights of all persons who have or may receive entries for bar diggings on bar claims, except in the Saskatchewan river where the lessee may dredge to high water mark on each alternate leasehold.

The lessee shall have a dredge in operation within one season, from the date of the lease for each five miles but where a person or company has obtained more than one lease. One dredge for each fifteen miles or fraction, will be sufficient. Rental, $10 per annum for each mile of the river leased. Royalty at the rate of two and a half per cent collected on the output after it exceeds $10,000.

Dredging in the Yukon Territory.—Six leases of five miles each may be granted to a free miner for a term of twenty years and also renewable.

The lessee's right is confined to the submerged bed or bars in the river below low water mark, that boundary to be fixed by its position on the first day of August in the year of the date of the lease.

The lessee shall have one dredge in operation within two years from the date from the lease and one dredge for each five miles within six years from such date. Rental, $100 per mile for first year, and $10 per mile for each subsequent year. Royalty same as placer mining.

Placer mining in the Yukon Territory.—Creek, gulch, river, and hill claims shall not exceed 250 feet in length measured on the base line or general direction of the creek or gulch the width being from 1,000 to 2,000 feet. All other placer claims shall be 200 feet square.

Claims are marked by two legal posts, one at each end, bearing notices. Entry must be obtained within ten days. If the claim is within ten miles of a mining recorder's office. One extra day allowed for each additional ten miles or fraction.

The person or company taking a claim must hold a free miner's certificate.

The discoverer of a new mine is entitled to a claim of 1,000 feet in length, and if the party consists of two, 1,500 feet altogether, on the output of which no royalty shall be charged the rest of the part ordinary claims only.

Entry fee $10. Royalty at the rate of two and one-half per cent on the value of the gold shipped from the Yukon Territory to be paid to the Comptroller.

No free miner shall receive a grant of more than one mining claim on each separate river, creek or gulch, but the same miner may hold any number of claims by purchase, and free miner's may work two claims in partnership by filing notice and paying fee of $2. A claim may be abandoned, and another obtained on the same creek, gulch or river by giving notice and paying a fee.

Work must be done on a claim each year to the value of at least $200.

A certificate that work has been done must be obtained each year, if not, the claim shall be deemed abandoned, and open to occupation and entry by a free miner.

The boundaries of a claim may be defined absolutely by having a survey made and publishing notice in the Yukon Official Gazette.

Hydraulic Mining, Yukon Territory.—Location suitable for Hydraulic mining, having a frontage of from one to five miles and a depth of one mile or more may be leased for twenty years provided the ground has been prospected by the applicant or his agent, is found to be suitable for placer mining and does not include within its boundaries any mining claims already granted.

Rental of $150 for each mile of frontage and royalty at the rate of two and one-half per cent of the value of the gold shipped from the Territory are charged. Operations must be commenced within one year from the date of the lease and not less than $5,000 must be expended annually. The lease includes all base metals, quartz and coal, and provides for the withdrawal of unopened land for agricultural and building purposes.

Petroleum.—All unappropriated Dominion lands in Manitoba, the Northwest Territories and within the Yukon Territory are open to prospecting for petroleum, and the Minister may reserve for an individual or company having machinery on the land to be prospected, an area of 640 acres. Should the prospectors discover oil in paying quantities, and satisfactorily establish such discovery an area not exceeding 640 acres, including the oil well and such other land as may be determined, will be sold to the discoverer at the rate of $1.00 an acre, subject to royalty at such rate as may be specified by order-in-council.

SOUTHERN ALBERTA OIL FIELD.

Calgary Albertan: A. Allan, Collector of Customs, returned yesterday from Pincher Creek. Farmers in that district are delighted with the recent fall of snow, and farming operations are being pushed. Fall wheat is looking splendid and already farmers are anticipating an early harvest.

Mr. Allan drove out to the Rocky Mountain Development Company's oil fields at Oil City, and found the men busy on Well No. 2, which is already down 400 feet by drilling by night and day.

This well gives every indication also of being in oil. Oil and gas showed up from the start.

A small refinery is now in operation and the various products are run off. Literally wells you wait, gasoline, coal oil, kerosene, lubricating, cylinder, black oil. Everything is of value, and the quality is only equalled by a few oil wells in Pennsylvania and excelled by none.

Enormous reservoirs of crude oil have been located on the property, and in a few months a gusher will be in evidence. The high grade qualities of the crude oil makes the process of refining very simple and cheaply done, the various oils being immediately fit for use after distilling.

Sixteen men are employed and this number will be largely increased as the company are getting ready to sink several more wells. Oil in Alberta will undoubtedly be a great industry and will attract the attention of thousands who have watched the oil development in the United States.

THE ST. PAUL SETTLEMENT.

The outline of the St. Paul de Metis colonization scheme was given by Rev. Father Lacombe, O.M.I., the veteran missionary, who passed through Winnipeg on his way to Montreal some days ago. The area set apart for the colony, which is situated at St. Paul des Metis, can accommodate 2,000 families, giving each an appropriation of eighty acres. All the settlers must be half-breeds.

The site of the colony is 120 miles northeast of Edmonton, and is 15 miles square, fronting on the Saskatchewan river. The land is only held provisionally from the Government, full title to it to be given only after the experiment (which is quite an innovation) has proved its practicability after a certain term of years. The colony will be given its first great impetus this spring, when 100 families of the Metis will return to Canada from Montana to take up the terms offered. At the present time about 100 families are located in the vast area, and they have prospered during their short residence, though a severe set-back was sustained some weeks ago by the loss by fire of the industrial school and equipment valued at $25,000. Nothing was saved and the missionary stated that he had only $2,000 which he had kept in reserve, to begin the work anew.

The colony is operated on singular lines. The land can be taken up only by half-breeds, and their title is provisional; they cannot sell it to any other than a half-breed and they cannot mortgage their property with any other than half-breeds. Reasonable half-breeds making application are allowed to select a section of 80 acres, are given some provisions from the headquarters of the mission and told to go and cut timber for their log cabin. Nothing is given them outright, lest they might become lazy. They may, if they choose, dispose of their improved property later to another half-breed for say 40 horses, or the like, and then go about the building of another farm.

Father Lacombe paid an eloquent tribute to the half-breed people. "Though despised now because they are poor," he said, "they have been the very foundation of this country. They have been the link between civilization and barbarism, between the white man and the Indian. In the books of the old old tourists, many tributes to the honesty and general good qualities of the half-breed. The half-breed has failed because he has not been able to stand up against civilization; he has been cheated of his life by white traders because he could not appreciate its value."

LOCAL

—Train thirty minutes late.

—A slight snow storm occurred at Banff this morning.

—Farmers along the C. &amp; E. are well on with seeding operations.

—Last night's train was unusually heavy, a large number of immigrants being aboard.

—Miss Vinn Moore, of Toronto, is opening an art studio next door to Killeen &amp; Gilbert's real estate office.

—A large new show window has been put on Lemare's grocery and fruit store.

—The fire brigade were called out last evening. The blaze proved to be nothing more serious than a burning chimney on the residence of W. J. Walker, Queens avenue and it was easily extinguished.

—The lacrosse enthusiasts met in the Heimick block last evening to organize and the prospects for a good season are very bright. A practice will be held tonight on the vacant grounds in front of the Queen's avenue school.

—Alberta:—Whatever may be said by the Calgary Conservative organ and the Calgary Conservative, there is little likelihood of the coming election being conducted upon non-party lines. Already there are three Liberals in the field in the north and there are two Conservatives in the field for the coming election. The latest nomination was in St. Albert. A convention was held there some days ago and L. Poudreau was nominated as the Liberal candidate.

—A meeting of the townpeople of Olds was held recently when a committee was appointed to consider the advisability of having the farming and ranching district of Olds represented in Calgary during the present season so as to make known to intending settlers the advantage of the Olds district as a mixed farming and ranching country. The committee having the matter in hand will probably send a practical farmer who has proved by experience the worth of that part of the country.

—Battleford Times: On Sunday evening Dr. Brown, a new arrival, while crossing the river at the bridge site, had a narrow escape from drowning. Accompanied by H. Maher of Clunkskill's store, he crossed the river on foot in order to pay a professional visit to the camp on the other side of the river. Before crossing the couple were informed that about fifty of the boys had crossed that afternoon so that there seemed no danger in their doing so. They reached the other side in safety and having performed their business started to return. Just before taking to the ice it was suggested that for precaution they should each take a pole along. They did and to this the doctor gratefully owes his life. When about half way across the ice suddenly cracked beneath him and he went in. The current made fierce efforts to pull him under but the pole stood in good stead, and Mr. Maher was able after a short time to help his companion out.

—Winnipeg Tribune: The C. N. R. is getting a big boy now. It operates over 2,000 miles of railway. In this country, in addition to its line to Lake Superior and all its branches it has pushed its way to the Saskatchewan river, and this morning its first through train for that point pulled out of the station at 7.50. There was an active scene of bustle and excitement as the conductor shouted "All aboard!" The train consisted of two baggage cars, four first class coaches and a sleeper.

—Winnipeg Tribune: For one of the most cold-blooded and cruel assaults that has happened for some time, four Galianos were arraigned in the police court this morning, and after careful deliberation, pleaded not guilty. On Saturday evening at about nine o'clock, Hyacinthe Vintonyk, a Galian, was brutally assaulted on Dufferin avenue, his assailants knocking him down and jumping upon him, causing injuries which, to a person of ordinary physique, would have caused death immediately. The injured man was conveyed to the general hospital suffering from several rib injuries in his head, a broken rib and a fractured hand. He was reported this afternoon to be resting easier, but his recovery still hangs in the balance.
